

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

This is to certify that Markus Ulsenheimer has successfully completed the 9 weeks W3C training course
"AN INTRODUCTION TO W3C'S MOBILE WEB BEST PRACTICES"

The course content comprised:

- Information about the opportunities and challenges of the Mobile Web
- Discussion of the coding techniques that should never be used for mobile
- Discussion of the coding techniques that should be used with caution with particular emphasis on the need to ensure progressive enhancement
- An exploration of the standards, tools and resources available from the W3C
- Exercises to explore the differences between desktop and mobile-friendly designs and how to generate both from the same source code
- Information on how mobile delivery differs from landline or wi-fi delivery
- Discussion of the One Web philosophy
- Exercises and guidance on using the mobileOK checker.

IN ORDER TO COMPLETE THE COURSE, IT WAS NECESSARY TO SUCCESSFULLY PASS AT LEAST 6 TUTOR-MARKED ASSIGNMENTS AND 2 QUIZZES THAT FORMED PART OF THE TRAINING MATERIAL. CONGRATULATIONS!
